

One Captured in Courthouse

Captured in the county courthouse with a canvas belt around his waist containing several pints of whisky, George W. Harvey pleaded guilty and was fined $50. Deputy Sheriff I. P. Stanford made the arrest.

Robert Taylor, negro, who was shot in the left hand by City Patrolman R. M. Brownlow several days ago as he resisted arrest for running a red light in his automobile, was fined $15 and sentenced to 15 days in jail because Brownlow discovered a jug of whisky in the offending car. Taylor averred he bought the whisky with his cotton-picking wages.
