

Rhythm n' Blues Show To Be Friday

Bill Lindsey, star of radio, television and records will be the main attraction at Optimist Club's Rhythm and Blues Review Friday from 5-9 p.m. at Irvingate Shopping Center adjacent to Skillern's.

The only admission requirement is a ticket to Irving Community Fair. The review is primarily to stimulate ticket sales.

Bill Lindsey has been in the music business all his life.

BILL LINDSEY

He lives in Euless. His mother was a music teacher and his father, an Irish tenor. Lindsey, 29, has been on television and radio, but his first real break came when he recorded one of his original compositions, "Blue". It is being played on KBOX and KLIF radio stations and is on national charts.

Lindsey has recorded two more songs on Levee Records to be released about the last of September.

Don Martin, who calls Irving home, will sing. He records for and is president of Trojan Record Company. His latest songs are Young Girls and Along Came Love on Strut Label.

Bobby New of Decatur, who is managed by Bertie Mae Batters of Irving, will appear on the show. He will sing Broken Hearted Indian and Only A Tool. New has appeared on the Big D Jamboree.

Don and Wayne Attaway of Florida will both sing and entertain.
