

Burn Victim Dies Sunday

Mrs. Emma Smith, 78-year-old Bruceville woman, died at 1:30 a. m. Sunday in Providence Hospital from burns suffered Friday night when her clothes caught fire in her home at the foot of the Bruceville viaduct.

She was the eleventh fire victim in and near Waco this year, excluding car fires which are charged to traffic.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Monday at the Bruceville Baptist Church, Rev. Hayward Smith officiating. Burial will be in Bruceville Cemetery.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. R. A. Mirick, Waco; two sons, John W. Smith, Bruceville, and Jesse J. Smith, Irving, and a brother, D. Y. Moore, Moody.

Clipped By:

gene

Sun, Aug 30, 2015